

Terry Henderson

Terry Henderson is a businessman with proven successful corporate and private business experience. Terry's corporate career with Dow Chemical included working in sales, marketing, customer service, and government and public affairs. For the past twenty years, Terry has been president and owner of Achieva, Inc., a company focused on providing unique government and public affairs expertise and technical education resources for companies and organizations both domestically and internationally.

Terry Henderson

- 1979 – Elected 4-H President in Oklahoma, at the time he was the youngest president to date.
- 1984 – Graduated with honors from Oklahoma State University with a B.S. in Animal Science.
- 1984 – Went to work for Dow Chemical in their Executive Marketing Development Program.
- 1984–1993 – Served in various sales, marketing and customer service management roles at Dow and DowElanco.
- 1993–1997 – Served as DowElanco's Government and Public Affairs Manager.
- 1997–Present – Founded Achieva, Inc. a privately-owned business which he has successfully lead and operated for the past twenty years.